

THE venue with a difference

Located in eclectic St Kilda, the Jewish Museum of Australia is internationally recognised as one of Australia's leading cultural centres.

The Jewish Museum provides a unique setting for cocktails, corporate functions, private celebrations, launches and community events. Our contemporary foyer area opening into the Gross Gallery is an ideal, flexible space for functions, whilst state-of-the-art galleries upstairs are available for guided or individual tours.

The Loti Smorgon Gallery provides vibrant and exciting changing exhibitions reflecting cultural, historic and artistic diversity. To enhance your function, the Museum is happy to provide people to speak on various topics related to our exhibitions, or on aspects of Jewish life and culture.

Excellent kosher caterers provide food and beverages for all functions. The many options available include morning and afternoon teas, corporate lunches, buffets and finger foods. All food provided is kosher - according to Jewish dietary laws.

Enclosed are details of the venue, service and a brochure outlining our permanent and temporary exhibition program for your perusal.

Please call the Museum to discuss your requirements and to arrange a venue inspection.

First Class Service

The Jewish Museum of Australia can manage all aspects of your event, providing you with assistance from the initial planning stages, to full support on the day.

Adriana Gomberg, the events co-ordinator, has extensive event management experience in Australia and in the world's party capital, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Whether you are planning a lecture, conference, product launch, board meeting, cocktail party or a wedding reception Adriana, together with the JMA exhibition curators and administration staff will ensure that everything runs smoothly, leaving you to concentrate on your guests.

To arrange a tour of the Museum, or to obtain more information about organising an event at JMA, please contact:
